LAEF Partners with Los AI USD Directors for Summer Arts Camps

(Los Alamitos, CA) –The Los Alamitos Education Foundation (LAEF) is again teaming up with several amazing arts directors to bring fantastic summer learning opportunities to students in our community. “One of LAEF’s goals is to connect all students to the 4 A’s – Academics, Athletics, Activities and the Arts. These camps give students a way to connect with arts programs from an early age and to hone their skills for performances during the school year,” says LAEF Executive Director Carrie Logue.

Grand Champion Los Alamitos High School Choir Director David Moellenkamp will present Xcite! Music Camps to 3rd -12th grade students! The first camp, the Show Choir Boot Camp, is offered June 18-22 and includes classes in hip-hop, lyrical dance, partnering, voice, musicianship and performance techniques. The Musical Theater Workshop students study with Broadway professionals in dance, acting and singing classes from July 16-20. The Show Choir Intensive is the third and final camp, which runs July 23-27. Students will work with competition-level choreographers and vocal specialists to develop advanced skills in singing, dancing and performing.

LAHS Dance Teacher Rikki Jones offers camps to beginning, intermediate and advanced dancers entering grades 4-12 through four different camps. From July 23-27, advanced dancers are invited to learn technique and combinations in different styles of dance. From July 30-August

2, beginning and intermediate dancers from grades 8-12 are offered camps to learn technique, stay in shape over the summer, and get familiar with the dance program. An All-Levels camp is being offered July 23-26 for dancers in grades 4-7. The dance camps are offered to any dancers; they do not have to be current students in the Los Alamitos School District or enrolled in the Dance Program at Los Al.

LAHS award-winning Theater Director Stacy Castiglione will offer a theater camp to students entering grades 1-8. From June 18-22, students will spend a week learning costume crafts, props, set painting and all that goes into being part of a play. The camp will end with a one-act play performed for friends and family on June 22.

Elementary kids will have the opportunity to “Rock Out” this summer at McGaugh’s Music Specialist Topher von Kolen’s Rock Star Boot Camps. From July 23-August 3, Rock Star Boot Camp is offered to students in grades 3-5 and Rock Star Jr. Boot Camp is offered to students in grades K-2. Students in both camps will perform on August 3 in the McGaugh Auditorium.

The camps are sure to provide an outstanding performing arts experience for all participants! Visit www.LAEF4Kids.org/summer to view flyers with all the details. Registration is now open at www.LAEF4kids.org/programs.

LAEF is the non-profit partner of Los Alamitos Unified School District. LAEF enhances educational excellence by providing after-school and summer enrichment programs to children in grades Pre-K to 12. LAEF impacts all students by providing significant funding for STEAM teachers and instruction, as well as igniting new programs and providing valuable resources.
